

9. Having a TBI impairs my ability to receive, process, and understand information;
10. I attempted to explain my circumstances to Judge Kathleen Galen, but my explanation was met with belittlement and telling me that I am a horrible mother and that having a TBI does not make me slow;
11. I have been publicly critical of how Judge Kathleen Galen has treated me;
12. I have posted my feelings about how Judge Kathleen Galen has treated me on my social media platforms;
13. On or about 03 October and 04 October, Judge Kathleen Galen viewed my personal Facebook story from her personal Facebook account;
14. I am afraid that Judge Kathleen Galen will retaliate against me in my criminal case for having publicly voiced my opinion of her;
15. I believe Judge Kathleen Galen is prejudiced and biased against me;
16. I believe Judge Kathleen Galen is prejudiced and biased against my attorney because her son is challenging her in the November Election;
17. I believe Judge Kathleen Galen viewing my Facebook page from her own personal page is inappropriate and improper;
18. I believe Judge Kathleen Galen's viewing of my Facebook page demonstrates more than a simple appearance of impropriety; and
19. My fear of retaliation is not unrealistic and is based on my experience with Judge Kathleen Galen and the fact that I have been openly critical of how I have been treated and her looking at my Facebook stories makes me feel terrified.
